Chairman Kevin Brady to Deliver Keynote at Tax Council Policy Institute's 18th Annual Symposium

Washington, February 7, 2017 – The Tax Council Policy Institute (TCPI) announced today that Chairman Kevin Brady (R-TX) will deliver the keynote address at its 18th Annual Tax Policy & Practice Symposium at 8:30 am on Thursday, February 16th.

Rep. Kevin Brady is Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee and has served as U.S. Representative for Texas's 8th congressional district since 1997. He has also served as Chairman of the influential Health Subcommittee for the House Ways and Means Committee, Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Joint Economic Committee and until 2013, was the leader of the Trade Subcommittee.

The event, held on February 16-17 at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Washington, DC, will focus on "Tax Policy in Transition: Diverging Views in a Converging World." The program manager for the event is EY, a global leader in assurance, tax, transaction and advisory services.

The 18th Annual Tax Policy & Practice Symposium will present and explore the themes of "transition" and "convergence or divergence." The first theme — transition — will provide a platform for a discussion that looks back at tax policy over the past eight years and looks ahead under a new President and Congress. The second theme — convergence or divergence — will examine how jurisdictions at all levels are thinking about tax policy within the context of globalization where borders continue to diminish in importance, and countries seek to cooperate more while pursuing and protecting their national interests.

About The Tax Council Policy Institute

The Tax Council Policy Institute (TCPI), which was created in 1997, is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit and non-partisan public research and educational organization. TCPI was created to help bring about a better understanding of significant federal tax policies that impact businesses and the national economy through careful study, thoughtful evaluation and open discussion. TCPI is affiliated with The Tax Council, an association established in 1966 for senior level tax professionals who work together to promote sound federal tax policies and a better understanding of our federal tax system.
